Applicant Name:	Passport Number:
Email Address:
Note: email service providers have filtering systems which could direct emails to uncommon folders. When checking your email for correspondence about your visa application, thoroughly search your inbox/junk/spam folders — in case any email from Australian Home Affairs gets automatically filtered.

This document helps you check that you have included the documentation needed by the Australian Department of Home Affairs (HA) to process your application. This checklist is not exhaustive — if there is additional information/documentation about your circumstances that is not in the checklist, you should include the additional information or a covering letter with an explanation.

Important information

- As the applicant you are responsible for providing all documents and information you believe will support your application at the time of application lodgement. Please be aware that the decision on your application may be made by Home Affairs based on the information and documentation that you include at the time of application lodgement.
 - The Application Fee will not be refunded if a decision is made by Home Affairs to refuse the application.
 - Please ensure you complete the current version of the application Form 48ME Application for a Medical Treatment visa
 - If you wish to authorize a person to communicate with HA about your application and/or receive documents on your behalf, complete either Form 956 or Form 956A (whichever form is applicable to your circumstances — refer to section titled ‘Who Should Use This Form’) and submit this form with your visa application.
- ⇒ Current versions of all Australian Government visa application forms may be downloaded from the following DIBP website:
www.homeaffairs.gov.au/about/corporate/information/forms/pdf-numerical

When you are satisfied that you have correctly completed your application form and all of the relevant documentation is included, you should sign and date your application form. Include this checklist when you submit your application.
